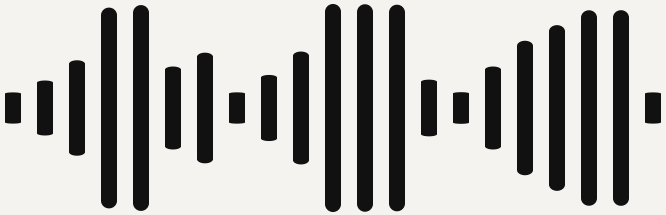
FOR ATHLETES · WORKS INSIDE CHATGPT, CLAUDE, GEMINI



”Why do you have an agent?

Just use Leave.”

Create your account, connect Leave to the AI you already use, and say ”Hey Leave.” It gets to know the rest, on and off the field, over your whole career. No forms. No cut.

PRE-SEED · LAUNCHING OCTOBER 1, 2026

LEAVEYOURAGENT.COM

01 — THE PROBLEM

Every athlete pays for an agent. Most never get one.

10–20%

of every NIL, endorsement and appearance deal goes to an agent, for the life of the deal. Union caps protect playing contracts. Nothing caps this.

84%

of the $2.6B NIL economy lands with football and men's basketball. Every other athlete is negotiating alone.

~2%

of NCAA athletes turn pro. The other 98% still sign deals, camps and appearances with no one in their corner.

You're the agent now. Leave gives you the information.

CONNECT

Say "Hey Leave."

Add Leave to ChatGPT, Claude or Gemini. It reads back what's already public about you and builds your profile by voice.

UNDERSTAND

Every contract, explained.

Upload any deal. Leave labels the six parts in plain language: term, deliverables, usage rights, payment dates, exclusivity, termination.

SEE THE MARKET

A web, not advice.

Who is signing athletes like you, which programs you qualify for, which payment lands when. Built from public data. Never sold.

Four beats. No forms.

01

Create your account

Sign up once at leaveyouragent.com. Under 18, a parent or guardian opens it and becomes the Talent Teammate.

02

Say "Hey Leave"

Inside the AI you already use. Leave knows your stats, roster and socials from public record and asks you to confirm.

03

Tell it the rest

Your major, your side hustle, your causes. Saved to your Web, encrypted so only you can read it.

04

Open the app

Profile, the Web and every contract, explained. Yours for the whole career, exportable forever.

One connection. Two surfaces.

2028 AND ON

The network

- Teams and brands pay athletes through Leave
- Brands find the right athletes; athletes keep 100%
- Post-career: likeness, archive, second act
- International leagues, family plans

Infrastructure for sports.

A connected network. Every athlete on it for life. Every team and brand paying and finding athletes through it. One set of rails under all of sports.

EVERY ATHLETE

Childhood to post-career.

One profile, one record of every deal and every payment, from the first youth camp to the second act. The athlete owns it. No agent, no cut.

EVERY TEAM AND BRAND

Pay and connect through Leave.

Teams and brands pay athletes on Leave rails, built on licensed payment infrastructure. Brands find the athletes who fit, with terms both sides understand, and disclosures handled.

A MOVEMENT

”Leave your agent.”

Athletes tell athletes. When the whole locker room is on it, the network is the product and the agent model is over.

Three things changed this year.

2025–26

AI assistants are the front door

ChatGPT, Claude and Gemini all take connectors through the open MCP standard. Leave plugs in where athletes already talk.

2025

NIL became a paycheck

The House settlement lets schools pay athletes directly, up to $20.5M a year each. More money, more contracts, the same few agents.

2026

One person can run it

Frontier AI models write, ship and support the product. Leading AI lab CEOs have publicly put 70–80% odds on the first one-person billion-dollar company arriving this year.

WHAT A 15% AGENT TAKES ON $200K OF NIL DEALS, A YEAR

$30,000

WHAT LEAVE COSTS, A YEAR

$1,188

The math athletes do themselves. It's the whole marketing plan.

PER ATHLETE, PER YEAR

Base · $99 a month, card up front, 30 days free	$1,188
Add-ons · storage and the Web, about $20 a month on average	$240
Payments · 1% net on about $20K a year paid through Leave	$200
Blended · grows with the athlete's data, needs and income	$1,628

What the athlete numbers become.

ATHLETES	REVENUE / MO	RUN COST / MO	ARR, BASE ONLY
50	$4,950	~$350	$59K
1,000	$99K	~$6.3K	$1.2M
10,000	$990K	~$61K	$11.9M
100,000	$9.9M	~$605K	$119M
1,000,000	$99M	~$6.0M	$1.2B

61,000 paying athletes is 0.7% of US high school and college athletes. At ten times ARR, $100M is a billion-dollar company.

BLENDED, ABOUT $1,628 A YEAR

Base $1,188, add-ons $240, payment fees $200. $100M ARR at about 61,000 athletes. $200M at about 123,000.

RUN COST

Payment processing, AI tokens and infrastructure. About $50 a month fixed at launch, then $6 to $7 per athlete. Roughly 94% gross margin at every tier.

leave

TABLE IS BASE SUBSCRIPTION ONLY, 100% PAID. COST ESTIMATES FROM THE LEAVE ARCHITECTURE PLAN, SEPT 2026.

Profitable at about 310 paying athletes.

WHAT LEAVE COSTS TO RUN, PER MONTH

AI models and cloud platform	$13.9K
Founder and operations	$11.1K
Legal, compliance, insurance	$3.3K
Infrastructure at launch	$0.05K

FIXED. ONE ENGINEER, NO HIRES.

$28.4K a month

Each paying athlete contributes $92.50 on the base plan: $99 less $6.50 of payment processing, AI tokens and infrastructure.

MONTHLY PROFIT BY PAYING ATHLETES, BASE ONLY

50 · launch cohort, October 2026	−$24K
310 · break-even	$0
2,000 · end of 2027 target	+$157K
15,000 · end of 2028 target	+$1.36M
60,000 · end of 2029 target	+$5.5M

Headcount stays at one, so fixed cost stays at $28.4K while revenue scales. With add-ons and payment fees, break-even drops to about 220 athletes.

Four years, from hard numbers.

YEAR END	PAYING ATHLETES	OF 8.9M	ARR, BASE	WHAT GETS THEM THERE
2027	2,000	0.02%	$2.4M	Youth programs, first ambassadors, the Learn series
2028	15,000	0.17%	$17.8M	College NIL season, Teammate referrals, add-ons
2029	60,000	0.7%	$71M	Pro leagues, premium data, first international leagues
2030	200,000	2.2%	$238M	Team and brand payments on Leave rails, family plans

THE HARD NUMBERS UNDERNEATH

$99 a month, $1,188 a year per athlete. About 94% gross margin. 8.9M US high school and college athletes today. 50 accounts on October 1.

NOT COUNTED

Add-ons and payment fees, which lift blended revenue about 37% to $1,628 per athlete. 700K pros worldwide, international athletes. 1M paying athletes is $1.2B ARR on base alone.

How athletes find Leave.

YOUTH PIPELINE

Youth sports programs

Partner programs bring Leave to youth athletes and their parents at 13 to 14, when the account and the vocabulary start. Accounts start at 13, opened by a parent or guardian.

AMBASSADORS

Athletes on equity

A 10% pool of equity for athletes who promote Leave. Owners, not spokespeople. Aligned for the whole career.

ATHLETE CHANNELS

Their feeds, not ad buys

Ambassadors post the math from their own TikTok, Instagram and YouTube: $30,000 to an agent, $1,188 to Leave. No paid media at launch.

DEAL-SIDE NETWORK

Industry advisors

Advisors with years of league, team and brand deals open doors to athlete groups, players' associations and collectives.

One founder.

Christopher Horne FOUNDER

Christopher is the Founder of Leave, responsible for the company's technical architecture, security, and AI infrastructure. He brings over 15 years of experience building enterprise-grade software across regulated, high-performance environments, including work spanning government, aerospace, and large-scale SaaS platforms. At Leave, Christopher leads the development of a secure, scalable intelligence layer that turns public records and uploaded contracts into plain-language threads for the athlete. His background in complex systems engineering ensures Leave is built for security, reliability, extensibility, and long-term scale as the platform evolves.

Headcount: 1. Now and at a billion.

THE THESIS

Leading AI lab CEOs are openly betting on the year the first one-person billion-dollar company appears. The public odds for 2026 sit at 70–80%.

THE PROOF

A one-person telehealth company launched in 2024 with $20K and no employees, did $401M in revenue in its first full year, and is tracking $1.8B in 2026.

THE PATH

One engineer, frontier AI models, 94% margin, profitable at 310 athletes. Then the network: every athlete, payment rails, brand access. The end state is a multi-billion-dollar acquisition.

Built for minors, regulators and partners.
